

MacWilliam Associates
Fire Safety at Work– How Much Do You Know?

Name

Signed

Date

Q1.

What three things (making the “Fire Triangle”) are required to start a fire?

If you gave this triangle a fourth side and made it a square what would be the fourth element?

Q2.

Which extinguisher(s) would you use for the following fires?

A waste paper bin

Water Foam Wet Chemical CO2 Dry Powder Fire Blanket

Television Computer Electrical Item

Water Foam Wet Chemical CO2 Dry Powder Fire Blanket

When you return to work check you have the correct extinguisher for the type of fire that might break out in that area; Check the pin and tag are in place and the extinguisher is correctly sited on a bracket or stand.

Q3.

What action should you take when -

a) You discover a fire?

b) You hear the warning given?

Do you know where your nearest call point and fire exits are?
 Never delay calling the fire services or leaving the building.

Q4.

Who is responsible for calling the fire services?
 Should you call them too from your mobile just to make sure?

Q5.

Where is the fire evacuation point and what should get taken there?

The person in charge will ensure the fire services are called and take the role call – ensure you are accounted for

Q6.

A client or colleague refuses to leave the building – What action should you take?

Q7.

How long will a fire door normally keep the flames back?

Keep fire doors closed - Never open a door if you see smoke seeping from underneath

Q8.

Name a fire hazard within the building

Q9.

What two workplace fire safety checks should you make following this training session?

- 1.
- 2.

Q10.

What three checks will you make on returning to your work area?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

This questionnaire is meant as a guide only